The Way of Stella Maris
Looking for a unique and active way to pray for the Archdiocese of Halifax-Yarmouth? Consider being a part of the first ever Way of Stella Maris Pilgrimage along the Eastern Shore of Nova Scotia. From August 10 to 15 join people from across the Archdiocese as they walk along the Eastern coast of our province as a way to grown deeper in their relationship with the Lord and pray for our diocese in the midst of our renewal and restructuring. The last leg of this pilgrimage will have the pilgrims make their way to Saint Mary's Cathedral Basilica to celebrate our diocesan feast day, the Assumption of Mary. For more information on the Way of Stella Maris go to www.halifaxyarmouth.org/pilgrimage

“The Good News of the Resurrection

“Christ is risen and makes all things new.” The resurrection is not just about Jesus rising from the dead; it is about the renewal of all of creation. “Let all the earth cry out to God with joy,” for Christ is risen, and with him all creation.

With the resurrection we are now in the new time, when the sea produces an unlikely catch of fish, and the net is not torn.

The resurrection of Jesus is also about our own resurrection, which we anticipate with hope. We pray that our Easter “joy will come to perfection in heaven.” But we know that there is a life to be lived, a life of struggle for the sake of the gospel.

Like the apostles, who were “full of joy that they had been judged worthy of ill-treatment for the sake of the Name,” we have to be willing to suffer pain and persecution before we “rise and come forth into the light of day.”

By persevering in the effort to bring good news to the earth and all its inhabitants, we will one day join in with “the voices of every creature in heaven and on earth and under the earth and in the sea” in a song of praise and honor “To the One seated on the throne, and to the Lamb.”

God is preparing a great springtime for Christianity, and we can already see its first signs. In fact, both in the non-Christian world and in the traditionally Christian world, people are gradually drawing closer to gospel ideals and values, a development which the Church seeks to encourage.

Today in fact there is a new consensus among peoples about these values: the rejection of violence and war; respect for the human person and for human rights; the desire for freedom, justice and brotherhood; the surmounting of different forms of racism and nationalism; the affirmation of the dignity and role of women.

Pope John Paul II, Redemptoris Missio, 1990: 86”

Fr. Jose will be away for the period May 6 – May 31. There will be no weekday mass during this time. Next weekend we welcome Fr. Gregory Agyeman to the parish.

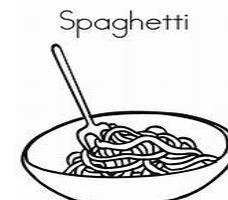

Congratulations to Landen Harvey who is receiving the sacrament of Confirmation today, may he be abundantly blessed by the gifts of the Holy Spirit. A reception will be held at the Glebe after Mass, all are welcome to attend.

Name Our New Parish – Reminder to return your ballot that was handed out last weekend.

Today, May 5, is Food Bank Sunday at St. Anthony’s. If you would like to make a donation to the St. Margaret’s Bay Food Bank, please use the special pink envelopes available at the back of the church.

Saturday – June 8 – St. Augustine’s Guild will be having a Spaghetti Supper. More details to follow.

Reminder – the offertory envelope boxes, for our returning summer parishioners, are now in each church. If there isn’t a box with your name on it, please contact the office and one will be provided to you.

The 7th Annual Archbishop’s Dinner - Join us for 7th Annual Archbishop’s Dinner and Auction on October 9, 2019 at the Cunard Centre in Halifax. The proceeds of this fundraiser will go to support our infirm and retired priests. Called by God, they responded yes and have given their entire lives over to Him in service to us. They have ministered to the people and parishes of our archdiocese through liturgical and sacramental celebrations, teaching and preaching the Gospel, and upholding the faith of the Church. They have shared their gifts and in turn been a gift to many communities of faith. We invite parishes and parish groups to support our priests by purchasing tickets to attend this year’s dinner or by donating to the Silent or Live Auction. Tickets are $125 each with a portion being tax receiptable. Tickets are available by visiting www.halifaxarmouth.org/dinner .For more information contact Christine Spears at 902-429-9800 ext 312 or cspears@halifaxarmouth.org
